

Niswonger Alumni Scholar Updates

Jason Light – (Class of 2013) was promoted to Senior Electrical Engineer, PE and moved back into Eastman’s Process Engineering Division. He now works in the Mechanical & Utilities Process Technology Group and is responsible for power system design and analysis (including substation design/replacement, short circuit, arc flash, coordination, power flow, stability), corporate standards, and general consultation.

Lillie Seal – (Class of 2015) was appointed as the part-time virtual technology and instruction coach for the Jefferson County Virtual Academy.

Ivory Shelton – (Class of 2016) is engaged to Joseph Twyman. She has applied for a Pediatric Emergency Medicine Fellowship and will “Match” to fellowship on November 30th. She recently presented research at the American Academy of Pediatrics National Conference. She was awarded a “Top 5” poster award and received a $10,000 Health Equity Innovation Award from Vanderbilt University. The project was entitled: “Using a QR Code to Connect Families to Food Resources – A Novel Tool for Addressing Food Insecurity in the Pediatric Emergency Department.”

Kori Smith – (Class of 2020) was accepted into Trevecca University’s Physician Assistant Program for the class of 2025. This program is the oldest and longest accredited in the state.

Madeline Standbridge – (Class of 2018) was elected as the Student Trustee for the AAFP Foundation Board of Trustees. She will be serving as the Student Representative on the TNAFP Board.